

Marjorie N. Austin

July 17, 1938 - May 22, 2012

MARJORIE "MARGIE" NATILE AUSTIN was born on July 17, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late George Ceasar and Annie Chamber she departed this life on May 22, 2012 after a lengthy illness. Marjorie was affectionately known as Margie Momma Margie and Grandma Marie.

Margie accepted Christ in her life at an early age while attending United Baptist Church. She loved attending church and singing church hymns out loud.

Margie received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools, graduating from Paul Lawrence Dunbar Senior High School. She was very well known for her big pretty smile that would lighten up a room and her stern lectures that made you think twice about something you may have already decided to do. Margie worked as an insurance claims representative for Travelers Insurance Company.

Margie leaves to mourn their loss: sons Eric P. Smith Sr., and Walter Austin Jr., grandchildren Eric P. Smith Jr. and KeAsia (little Magie) Smith, daughter-in-law Angela Smith, a special Aunt Lucille Lindsey, special cousin/sisters Linda Henry and Shirley Eldridge, very close and dear friend Marion Allen and a host of relatives and friends. Margie was preceded in death by her husband Walter Austin Sr., father George Ceasar Chambers and mother Annie Chambers.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
