

Marjorie L. Cooper

March 4, 1944 - February 6, 2013

MARJORIE LORRAINE ROYSTER-COOPER, daughter of the late William and Marjorie Royster, was born on March 14, 1944 and was called to eternal rest on February 5, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

Marjorie, affectionately known as “Lorraine,” graduated high school in the Bronx, New York in 1966. Later she went to Divisional School for Psychiatric Aide and graduated from there in 1971. Lorraine was interested in giving the best of care to her parents. She was head nurse of the Intensive Care Unit at Rosewood Hospital. Amongst other numerous positions she was awarded the Governor’s Citation for twenty-nine years of outstanding service.

On June 24, 2002, Lorraine married Leon Cooper and out of their union she had four stepchildren: Tanya, Tarsha, Tammy and Terry. She also raised her great-nephews, Brendon and Brandon Royster.

Lorraine’s second love was traveling, where she went on many cruises with her mother and friends. Lorraine loved playing cards, always had card games at her home with uncles, aunts and friends.

Lorraine leaves to mourn: her husband, Leon Cooper; her devoted niece, whom was more of her daughter. Monique Royster; and nephew, Harold Coleman; stepchildren, Tanya, Tarsha, Tammy and Terry; her great-nephews, Brenon and Brandon; grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Mrs. Lorraine, my sympathy to your family as you make your final journey home. I will remember you always and fondly. I will remember the times spent in your home with your family and the love that made that home. I don't think your job is ever done Mrs. Lorraine. Now it is time to watch over your loved ones as you dwell in The House of the Lord. Much love. Lisa Scallio

“ My condolences go out to the family. This must be a difficult time for the family, losing someone that you loved. May you gain strength by the promise of Jesus Christ to restore our dead loved ones back to life with us on earth as stated at Matthew 5:5 and John 5:28, 29.

Annitta Verrett - February 09, 2013 at 07:28 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
