“ I would like to express my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible speaks about a future time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev. 21:4). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest Regards.##imported-begin##C.Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Allsop's family and friends. The loss of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But God is going to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1 Corinthians 15:26. Then, as Daniel 12:2 states, "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes these are the promises of God who cannot lie-Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I offer my deep condolences to the family of Marjorie at this time. May the God of all comfort be with you at this time to strengthen you and help you to endure. He tells us to throw our burdens upon him, because he cares for us. 1st Peter 5:7. At Isaiah 25:8 he promises that he will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, because Jehovah himself has spoken it." One day there will be no more sorrow and no more pain. May you be comforted by this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
