

Marjorie R. Hill

March 12, 1934 - May 9, 2022

MARJORIE ROBERTS HILL was the daughter of the late Janie B. Owens and Clifton Ford. She was born on March 12, 1934 in Marion, Alabama. Marjorie got her wings on May 9, 2022.

After moving to Baltimore, Maryland, Marjorie met and married William Roberts. With that union she had four children, William Roberts, Nevitt Roberts, LaFaythia Roberts and Clifton Roberts. Marjorie later met and married Windfred Hill and with that union she had one child, Ursula Hill.

Marjorie accepted Christ at an early age. She joined Gospel Tabernacle Baptist Church under the direction of Reverend Charles Reed and later under the direction of Bishop Reginald Kennedy. Marjorie joined the Mass Choir Ministry; for she loved to sing.

Marjorie loved to cook. She got a formal education in culinary arts which led to her working for her church as the Church Culinary Director. Marjorie provided many years preparing delicious meals for her home and church families. She worked in retail sales but worked many years, many years as a cook at Pikesville High School, from which she retired.

Family who preceded her in death are her mother Janie B. Owens and father Clifton Ford; sisters, Zola, Willie and Maggie; brothers, Jeff and Frank; sons, William and Clifton; daughter, Lafaythia; sisters-in-law, Geneva Hill, Martha Hill, Miranda Hill-Wilson and Thelma Robinson; brothers-in-law, John Hill and John Robinson.

Marjorie leaves to mourn: son, Nevitt Roberts (Madeline); daughter, Ursula Conner; sisters, Jannie Volleman and Bonita Withers (Larry); brother, Henry Barksdale (Janet); goddaughter, Edna Smith Lee; godson, Rodney McDonald; goddaughter, Elizabeth Butler; daughters-in-law, Janice Roberts and Debra Roberts; over twenty-three grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren; sons-in-law, Willie Brown, Bruce Conner and David Carroll; and a host of friends. Marjorie will be missed by so many who know that she loved them and prayed for them.
