

Marjorie Jackson

September 23, 1959 - November 11, 2020

Marjorie Jackson was born Marjorie Annette Parker on September 23, 1959 to Allie Mae Lewis and Willie Parker in Daytona Beach, Florida. She was called home by the Lord to her heavenly home on November 11, 2020 after a lengthy illness.

Marjorie attended schools in Florida, but in 1970 relocated to Baltimore, Maryland and continued her education in the Baltimore City School System. She worked for Sim-Kee and Golden Corral for many years.

Margie, as she was affectionately called, was loved by everyone she met. She received the Lord Jesus Christ as her Savior. She was a member of Disciples Bible Baptist Church which was joined with St. Mark's Institutional Baptist Church in 2009 under the leadership of her beloved Pastor, the late Reginald W. Lawrence.

On December 18, 1999, Marjorie married the love of her life, Andrew S. Jackson, Jr. Margie enjoyed family time, having fun, laughing and cooking. She adored her grand and great-grandchildren who were the joys of her heart.. She didn't play when it came to her babies.

Her sister, Diana Robinson; brother, Randolph Adams; and grandson, Joseph Payne preceded her in death.

As time moves on, she leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted husband, Andrew S. Jackson, Jr.; daughter, Nicole Smith; sons, Andrew Baker and Eric Smith; step-daughter, Locatia Jackson; brothers, Randal Adams (Baltimore), Clarence Brooks (New York), Charles Hickson, Willie Parker, Jr. and Benjamin Franklin (Daytona Beach); sisters, Josephine Pope (Daytona Beach), Patricia Benjamin (Atlanta), Johnnie Mae Williams (Georgia); grandchildren, Michael Byers, Mulan Smith, Chamere Smith, Dayquan Jackson, Desiree Jackson, Trell Allen, Jr., Jennifer Baker, Zavion Baker, Majalina Baker, Meijer Baker, Antonio Walczak; great-grandchildren, James Bennett, Ray'lin Bradley, Promise Smith and Dior Moore; three nieces close to her, April Adams, Cearira Pettus and Kimberly Green; also two nephews close to her, Randolph Adams and Johnnie Pettus; daughter by love, Kuntasha Stringfellow; good friend, Ms. Moody; and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Marjorie should be a testament to all; she refused to allow her ailing body to prevent her from lending both hands to help in any church, friends nor family events.

And your right Marjorie, “God Got You”!

“ Philippian 1:21-23

For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain. If I am to go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labor for me. Yet what shall I choose. I do not know. I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is better by far.

SHE TRADE IN THE WORN OUT EARTHLY SUIT FOR A FOREVER GLORIFIED SUIT WITH HER FATHER IN HEAVEN

Farewell Sister Marjorie Jackson your work is now done here on earth take your rest and sleep in peace until we all meet again on the other shore.

Bro Jackson send love and comfort to you and your entire family as you mourn the Passing of your lovely wife.
