

Marjorie Martin

October 12, 1953 - July 11, 2024

Legacy of Life

Marjorie “Margie” Martin departed this life on July 11, 2024. She was born on October 12, 1953, to Odell Martin and the late Herman Martin. Margie accepted the Lord Jesus Christ at an early age, a faith that guided her throughout her life.

Margie was preceded in death by her sister Mary Baytops, brother Herbert Martin, nieces Renea (Nadieboo) Martin, Shenelle Martin, Qwanda Martin, and nephew Willie Godbold.

Margie attended Richmond Public Schools and later advanced her career in Food Management. She had a passion for cooking, often preparing meals for family gatherings. Margie also loved dancing and traveling to different casinos. Her vibrant personality earned her the admiration and love of all who knew her. The only thing she wouldn't do was drive on the highway, no matter how long it would take to reach her destination, driving through the city! Taking bus trips and playing bingo were two of Margie's favorite hobbies. She always shared her collection of colorful bingo markers with everyone.

Margie leaves behind cherished memories with her children Marvin, Johnnie, Jeanetta, and Sheronda; grandchildren Traevon, Kahdijah, Davon, Chase, Landon, devoted Jayden, Kyan, and Linkoln; and great-grandchildren Daniyah and Daphne. She is also survived by her sisters Delores, Jerlene, Barbara, Pamela, Renea, Wanda, Michelle, and Hurline; daughters-in-law Andria and Tarshelle; brothers-in-law Andrew, Walter, and Ulysses; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Her devoted lifelong partner Sherman Greenwood and devoted best friend Brenda Stokes held special places in her heart.

Margie's legacy of love, kindness, and resilience will continue to inspire all fortunate enough to have known her.
