

Marjorie E Mines

September 12, 1942 - September 16, 2015

MARJORIE ELMAR MINES, daughter of the late Holland and Marjorie Railey was born September 2, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. She succumbed to death after a valiant and lengthy battle with cancer on September 15, 2015. In her final days, she was comforted by the sounds of the Kingdom Melodies and the presence of family and friends,

Marjorie was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Education was very important to her and she successfully obtained her GED on March 31, 1986. She held various jobs during her lifetime; however, she loved being a daycare provider the most. She operated her own center, "Lil Marjorie's Daycare" which she ran for 12 years. She loved working with children and will be fondly remembered as a loving and caring daycare provider.

Marjorie met and married the love of her life, Stuart Mines. They were married September 25, 1960 and from this loving union came Leonard and Vanessa. They spent 55 years together and set a fine example for their family and friends.

Marjorie was introduced to Jehovah and the truth when her son, Leonard, began to study the bible with Jehovah's Witnesses. She and Stuart embraced the truth wholeheartedly. She symbolized her dedication to Jehovah by water baptism on May 4, 1991. They loved every facet of their worship to Jehovah.

They prayed, read the bible and attended annual conventions and assemblies together. She also loved the Kingdom songs, her favorites being Song #60 "He Will Make You Strong" and Song # 134 "See Yourself When All Is New". Her faith was strong, she enjoyed telling others about the Paradise and what Jehovah would do for mankind in the very near future.

“ Hello my dear friends. I just can't tell you how sorry we all were to here this news. We loved Sis. Mines so much. She was such a kind lady and a "fashionista". She will truly be missed. I look forward to seeing her soon in God's New World. I still remember how much you all supported us when my mom fell asleep in death. I just can't wait to see them both. They both believed with all their hearts in the promises of our Heavenly Father and they both loved him so much. He will surely remember them and bring them back in just a little while. This is truly not the way He intended life to be. Stand firm!!!! Our deliverance is near!!!! We will soon be reunited with those we love whom we have lost. You have our numbers. Please call us if you need us. We will make a point to come see you when we come to Maryland. We love you all so much!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

*My husband and I send our Sincerest Sympathy to the Mines Family. I TRULY Loved Sister Mines! and even though I moved from Baltimore 10 years ago, I stayed in touch with her, and I will miss our wonderful up building conversations about Jehovah God. My fondest memory is seeing her and her husband dance at gatherings...they love to hand-dance and they were in tuned with one another. Looking forward to seeing my dear friend again under perfect conditions, under Jehovah God's New Arrangement. Jude 21
