

Marjorie E. Bates

August 31, 1923 - February 19, 2016

Marjorie E. Bates, daughter of the late Ernest and Mary Waters, was welcomed into this life on August 31, 1923 and received into the heavenly Father's Kingdom on February 19, 2016.

Although always vastly intelligent, the former Marjorie Waters, received her education in the Baltimore City Public School Systems. She attended and received her spiritual education at the Church of Saint Mary the Virgin.

Marjorie was employed and devoted to her career at Becton Dickinson Pharmaceutical Company before retiring.

Marjorie was united in marriage to Alfred P. Bates, Sr., who preceded her in death in 1993. She was also preceded in death by her son, Alfred P. Bates, Jr.

She was very well loved, kind and caring. Her love for her family far surpassed her life as she leaves a long legacy of many people who loved her. To know Marjorie, was simply, to love Marjorie.

Marjorie leaves to mourn: her devoted daughters, Mrs. Janice Bailey (Ronald Bailey, Sr.), Mrs. Jean McNeely (Donald McNeely), and Mrs. Carolyn Thomas (Neal Moses); her devoted sons, Arnold Bates (Lillian Bates), Bruce Bates and Eric Tates; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the death of your most precious loved one Marjorie. I know that this is a difficult time for you and I pray that with the passing of time your pain will in some way lessen. It is truly good to know that the bible promises a time when all suffering, pain and death will be gone forever. Rev21:3-4 Our loving heavenly father has also promised that those who have died will live again by means of the resurrection made possible by means of Jesus CHrist. John5:28-29 What a wonderful time that will be! Until then may the promises of our heavenly father provide you with the strength you need to endure and with hope, courage and faith. Once again I am truly sorry for your loss.
