

Mark A. Dorsey

October 31, 1959 - May 22, 2002

Mark Alexander Dorsey, son of James and Thelma Dorsey, was born October 31, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on May 22, 2002 after a long illness. Mark attended Edmondson High School and the Community College of Baltimore. He also served in the Maryland Army National Guard. Mark was an avid football and basketball fan, and was himself a basketball player. He loved all sorts of music especially by his favorite musician, Jimi Hendrix. Mark was a great storyteller and was the comedian of the family. In his mid-twenties he was seriously wounded and paralyzed; and despite many bouts with illness, Mark still maintained that wonderful sense of humor. Mark is mourned and survived by: parents, James and Thelma; sisters, Rosalind, Terry, Leslie and Robin; brother, Kirk; uncle, James Williams; aunt, Ann Vines; niece, Tracey; nephew, Bryan; great uncles and great aunts; and a host of other relatives and friends. Mark leaves this earth but not the hearts of his family and friends, and he will be deeply missed. Now we know that he is standing tall and walking again.
