

Mark Anthony Wimbush

August 28, 1962 - May 23, 2003

Mark Anthony Wimbush, son of Dorothy Horton Brown and Matthew Wimbush, was born on August 28, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a lengthy illness, God called him to his heavenly home on May 23, 2003. "Tony", "Mr. Bo", "Video Soul", and "Pretty Tony" as he was affectionately known, attended Saint Francis Parochial and Baltimore City Public Schools. Upon completion of school in lieu of his condition, Tony became an avid mentor, and advocate for the health field, and a strong voice for people in the physically disabled community. He appeared on shows such as 48 Hours, and local television station Channel 2 News, speaking on topics ranging from health to gun violence within his community. Tony was a life long member of Saint Ann Roman Catholic Church, where he served as an altar server at a young age. Over the years, Tony loved to worship with religious leaders of Saint Ann Roman Catholic Church to include Father Pope, Father Damion, Father Sam, Father Joe, Father Peter, Rev. Schwind, Deacon Stanley, Deacon Eddie Bee, Sister Barbara, Sister Jeanne. Tony was a loving and caring person, and this was prominently seen in his relationship with his mother and father. He made numerous friends wherever he went, and was known personally throughout the Hip-Hop and R&B community. Everyone who knew him will sincerely miss Tony. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Dorothy; father, Matthew; stepfather, Jay Brown; stepmother, Linda Wimbush; three brothers, Mario, Michael and Lamont; one sister, Michelle Wood; one brother-in-law, Darryl Wood; one sister-in-law, Anna Wimbush; eight nephews,

Michael, Christopher, Justin, Juilian, Jordon, Cameron, Mario and Mossimo; three nieces, Trudia, Marisha, Arial; two grandmothers, Susan Day and Pearl Wimbush; two grandfathers, Albert Day and Thomas Suter; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and devoted friends, Charles Flowers, David Thomas, Johnny Dunn, Dan Bitze, and Irene Wright.

“ To The Family Of Mark Anthony Wimbush: Please accept my deepest sympathy. Tony will be missed by all who knew and loved him. Death is such an enemy of life, and although it is painful, we all have to face it. Here is a passage that I hope brings comfort to the family found at Acts 24:15, which states: "And have hope towards God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust." This is a very comforting passage that I find very comforting, because I know soon I will see my loved one again. I hope this passage bring solace to your family. With sympathy.##imported-begin##Von Holley##imported-end##

“ Family, at a time like this, we need to rejoice in the fact of knowing that Tony is definitely in better place! While we will all miss him, and his dry sense of humor!! I for one am finally glad that he is able to walk again, and rest with our other loved ones whom have gone to pass.
