

Mark Gordon Chisholm

August 30, 1959 - November 11, 2012

MARK GORDON CHISHOLM, son of Gordine Chisholm and the late Oswald E. Chisholm, Sr., was born on August 30, 1959 in Chicago, Illinois.

At the age of three, his parents separated and he moved with his mother and brother “Chipper” to Baltimore, Maryland where he attended the Baltimore City Public School System, later earning his GED. He returned to Chicago in the late 80’s and became a member of Garden of Prayer and accepted Christ as his personal Savior in June of 2002.

He worked for Aramark of Chicago, then transferred to Aramark of Baltimore. Upon the death of his step-father, Clarence W. Blount, he returned to care for his mother.

On February 14, 2004, Mark married the former Demetrius Smith.

Mark enjoyed spending time with family and friends. He was also well known as “Mr. Handyman”. If he didn’t know how to fix it, he would figure it out. Everyone loved him and he will truly be missed.

Mark is survived by: his loving and devoted wife, Demetrius; his mother, Gordine Blount; son, Stephon; daughter, Markita; two stepsons, Kevin and Vincent; stepdaughter, Krystal; stepbrother, Michael; nephew, Damien; and many other family members.

His brother, Oswald “Chipper” Chisholm, Jr. preceded him in death.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
