

Mark Edward Johnson

June 23, 1969 - July 17, 2019

Mark Edward Johnson, was born June 23, 1969 to William Edward and Ernestine Johnson in Richmond, Virginia. On July 17, 2019, surrounded by family, his Heavenly Father called him home to the pearly gates.

Mark received his formal education and graduated from Henrico High School in Henrico, Virginia. He accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior and often would read his bible. Mark's spiritual belief was transforming his life in various ways.

Mark was happiest when there was good food, good music and family and friends around. He had a sense of humor that was a joyous, light to all who knew him. Mark had a unique ability to make all of his family feel as though each one was very special. Despite his illness, Mark was full of hope, joy, love, kindness and strength.

Former occupations include IT Specialist at Gateway Technology in Newport News, Virginia and Bellwood Defense Supply; as well as Computer Analyst for DuPont. During his leisure, Mark enjoyed socializing with the Mustang Club, fishing, gaming and eating at the best restaurants in town. In his spare time he loved barbering and being a DJ.

To have touched so many lives bears testament to the fact that his purpose was divine.

“ Mark will always be in my heart. He would always send me a text that would make me laugh. Tina I know you're going to miss him when you see one you saw the other. He loved his mom. Uncle Buck he loved you for the many words and things you did for him even when you was in pain. He's no longer suffering he was ready to go he was at peace. Think on good things. I love you both.

“ I remember when the family first came to New York with the kids as teenagers. The kids were a big hit with us. Mark was already sharing his life expectations and being so respectful and funny. As an adult Mark never wavered with his outgoing spirit and commitment to others. Mark's strong character alone will affirm his glory with our Savior.
No more pain, No more suffering!!
