

Mark Leon Barnes

April 16, 1962 - September 22, 2003

MARK LEON BARNES, son of the late Dorothy E. Barnes and Carl Young, was born on April 16, 1962. He was called from his earthly home to his heavenly reward on September 22, 2003 after a lengthy illness. Mark was raised and educated in Baltimore, Maryland. He was a graduate of Forest Park High School. Although Mark held various jobs throughout his life, his battle with sickle-cell would outweigh his ability to work. Being the strong and determined person he was, he would not let his illness get in the way. In April of 1987, he started one of the toughest jobs ever – raising a family. Mark was a loving and caring father and family man. He surrounded his life with children, nephews, nieces, godchildren and everyone's children in the neighborhood. He loved his kids more than life itself. His favorite pastimes were making people laugh, going to the flea market with Ricky, and watching the community marching band, The New Baltimore Rockers, perform in parades. To know Mark was to love him. He touched many lives and will sorely be missed. Mark leaves to cherish his memory: a wife and friend, Teresa Barnes; two loving and devoted children, daughter Brittany Barnes and son Cordaya Banes; his pride and joy granddaughter, Saniya Hudgins; father, Carl Young; sister, Millicent Barnes; grandmother, Gracie Barnes; grandmother-in-law, Rosetta Henderson; grandfather-in-law, Nathaniel Rantin; four aunts, Dianna McIver, Carolyn Barnes, Alona Barnes and Shameya Barnes; two aunts-in-law, Sharon Washington and Deborah Hope; four uncles, Jimmy Holmes Sr., Shawn, Maurice and Michael Barnes; two uncles-in-law,

William McIvrm and Von Washington; three great-aunts, Iris Miller, Margaret Hill and Alberta Hopper; one great-uncle, Broadus Bailey; two brothers-in-law, Alandious Feldman Jr. and Amin Boyd; one sister-in-law, Katrina Boyd; ten grandchildren and a host of other family and friends. Mark held a very special relationship with his nephew Abdul Brown and close friend Mr. Bobby Wooten.

“ Though during your time of grief it may not seem possible but there is always light at the end of every tunnel especially when someone dear has been separated from us due to death. Death in this present day is not something we want as a part of life’s cycle. Our heavenly father Jehovah God wants you to know that. He wants all people to know he is aware of all our suffering and losses due to our enemy Satan and he will soon rectify because this is not the way he purpose life to be. 1John 4:8 lets us know God is Love so out of his love for us he made a provision that only the true and Almighty God can do. Jehovah have promise according to Rev 21:3,4 that death one day will be no more... the things that causes pain and mourning will be no more. As for those we have lost to death, John 5: 28, 29 states those in the memorial tombs will hear God’s sons voice, Jesus Christ and will awaken from an eternal sleep that have been made a temporary state now due to the ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ. How wonderful the day when you will be able to enjoy your once lost loved one to death. Yes Jehovah promises us the gift of everlasting life according to Titus 1:2. The righteous ones will reside on earth forever as he informs us at Psalms 37:29 because that have always been his purpose since the beginning of mans creation again stated at Titus 1:2. You can have trust in this promised hope because Isaiah 55: 11 states of Jehovah his words will not return to him without results. Yes trust in God’s word the bible because Hebrews 6:18 says it is impossible for God to lie. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. May you be comforted by the loving promise found at John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life."##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
