

Mark Christopher Nichols, Sr.

November 15, 1967 - March 26, 2015

Mark C. Nichols, Sr. was born on November 15, 1967 in Baltimore, Maryland to Joann Butler and the late David Butler. He was the youngest of eight children.

Mark received his education in the Baltimore City School systems. During his school years, he enjoyed playing basketball, which he excelled in and played on a number of basketball leagues. Basketball was one of Mark's favorite past times. He was also an avid fisherman, spades player, gamer. The list could go on and on for hours. Mark loved living life to the fullest and we all know what a jokester he could be. Whenever he was around, you know a good time was in store. We all have many, many, fond and humorous memories that we are going to keep near our hearts and reflect upon when we think about him.

Mark's greatest joy in life was his family. He was a dedicated son, brother, father, grandfather, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend. The family was blessed and thankful to have him as a part of our family. Mark was a skilled forklift operator and warehouse worker. He brought his charm and humor to the workplace that his family knew so well. Mark was a unique and extraordinary individual whose memory we will cherish. Even during his illness, he continued to work until his body would no longer allow him to. Years prior to his illness, Mark accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior. He is now in the presence of God.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his ever loving and devoted mother, Joann Butler; Siblings Olden (Ann) Nichols Jr., Robert E. Nichols(deceased), Linda Nichols, Johnny (Fern) Williams, Sylvester Williams (deceased), Gregory Nichols, and Sandra Nichols .Children: Mark C. Nichols Jr. , Marlon (Amanda) D. Nichols, Cameron Diggs (step-son), Makayla Ford (step-daughter), Malani J. Nichols, & Markhi C. Nichols. Grandchildren: Mark C. Nichols III., Makya C. Nichols, Mailyn A. Nichols, Arin M. West and Madison C. Nichols and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Best friends: John Bell and Terry Jones Sr.

“ Mark I'm going to miss the way you made people laugh. Your presence was always positive and you always encouraged me. You kept it real. It hurts to know your now being referred to as a past tense. I know your resting comfortably in God's hands. I'm sure you wouldn't want us crying over you. Until we meet again. Rest in heaven Mark.

“ *You will forever be missed. I know you will live thru our children. I promise they will always know WHO you are. We miss you so much but to be absent from the body means to be present with the Lord.

“ I am extremely sorry for your loss. I can not imagine the pain you have had to endure. May the God of comfort be with you now and in times to come. God's Word the bible promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 28,29 and also at Revelations 21: 3,4

Shane Briscoe - March 28, 2015 at 08:09 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
