

Mark Steven Robinson

August 28, 1964 - May 16, 2013

MARK STEVEN ROBINSON, son of the late Carl A. and Doris Robinson, was born on August 28, 1966.

He received his high school diploma at Eastern High School in Baltimore, Maryland. He was employed by Broadway Services for Johns Hopkins Hospital for many years.

During his early adulthood, Mark was a baptized Jehovah's Witness which helped him cultivate the "Fruitages of the Spirit." He affected everyone who came in contact with him, with his kindness and love for mankind. He loved his pet cat, Queenie and family dog, Kirby. He enjoyed reading and listening to his favorite music artist, Miles Davis and Earth, Wind and Fire.

Mark was single, but he was devoted to his family and dedicated to his job and friends at Johns Hopkins Hospital; Lt. McNair, Edward "Shakey" Dickerson, Derrick Warren, Toria Holmes, Shannon Hughes, Christine Fullwood, Dion and Alicia and countless others. Thank you for being there for him.

He leaves to continue to love him: his brother, Carl A. Robinson Jr.; two sisters, Diane and Tracey Robinson; two nieces, Darnae and Dana Wells; two nephews, Jonathan and Jeremy Thompson; their father, Maurice Thompson; and Jonathan's fiancée, Ariel Harris; his cousins, Todd "Watty" Walker, Kim, Randy and Phillip Walker, David "Day Day" Dargen and Pam Dargen; and many others.

Mark Robinson will never be forgotten. He will always remain in our hearts

“ What a beautiful smile. My condolence to the family. It times like these that we need comfort from the Bible. The Bible promises that our dear loved ones have the hope of the resurrection hear on earth in the near future we find this promise at (John 5:28, 29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment. The resurrection is possible because God sent his Son to give his life for us. So it is an expression of Jehovah's love and undeserved kindness.—Read John 3:16; Romans 6:23.

“ While I didn't know Mark personally - I only met him once - he left quite an impression on me. He and my husband, Rocky, worked together for many years with Allied and then Johns Hopkins. The one time I met him he was helping us to move and though I encountered him for just a few minutes, I thought, "How kind of this man to assist us when he really didn't have to." So many people spoke about how this was truly Mark. My husband would tell me that he would ask about my mother when she was battling cancer. The world would be such a marvelous place if we had more self-less people like Mark. He will be missed by many. We will continue to pray for his family.

“ My name Is David Dargan III, the son of David Dargan Jr. I am so sorry about your loss. I really didn't know Mark that well because the last time I've seen him was when I was just a little boy. But from all of the good things that I have heard about him from the people that loved him so much lets me know that he was a good person. My father always told me that him and Mark was really close. I just want the family to know that everything happens for a reason. We as people might not know what that reason is, just know that GOD has it all under control!!!!!! May God bless each and everyone of you!

“ I am sorry for your loss. The bible promises that death will be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). It also holds out the hope of a resurrection for all those in God’s memory (John 5:28,29). Until then may we the living use our lives to make a good name with God (Ecclesiastes 7:1).

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
