“ *Markus,
We are still missing you, my Godson, my Baby boy that was so dear and tender as a Lamb, my strong as an Ox, mighty storage place Buddy, my Ace Boo Cool. Mary and I were your 1st Babysitters. Wherever you are I must be Heavenly because is giving us all the strength to endure the pain and grief from missing you!*

Shalom, until we meet soon!

“ Bro. Markus was one of my Sunday school children. He was always quiet and kind, I never had any trouble with him or any of the other Sunday school children. This is very devastating to hear about him, I'm in shock and saddened about this. Sis. and Bro. Nocho and family we're praying for all of you. God give you HIS COMFORT.

“ We've gone through a lot together cried, happy times, and usually just sat together through the night laughing and having a good time. We might not have been born from the same mother but to me you were always my little brother. I love you man and we will see each other again. Laugh in the face of inner darkness because thats the onlything that will keep us sane.

“ Rest In Peace. I remember Recruit Nocho and I going down to Parris Island together. Him and I became friends during training day one and he was an amazing marine and friend. My condolences to your family.
