“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ I am so sorry to hear about your moms passing. I hope that you can find strength and comfort in the love of family. May it help you know that her journey in life has left you with a foundation that will continue to bless you. Her love of life, and family will live on. Karen.... I can not begin to understand how you feel but just know there is a plan for you.

“ Sorry to hear about Aunt Marlene, my prayers are with you and the rest of the family. I'm not big on speaking more than necessary only when needed but as I remember what Granmy(Catherine Brown) shared with me during my dad's passing hopefully these words will comfort you as well. She told me, "Keisha isn't not going to easy and you never will know why just know that you will always have memories and experiences that no one can ever take from you; you hold true to that and in time it will get a little easier". Allow yourself time to grieve, tears can heal the soul.

"What we have once enjoyed, we can never lose. All that we love deeply becomes part of us." -Helen Keller

*Please accept our heartfelt condolences from the

“ Our Heavenly Father never purposed death for mankind. I am so sorry that you have to go through this. This is a very difficult time for you and for your family- please accept my deepest condolences. God hates death and describes it as an enemy. Very soon, he will stop it once and for all. (1 Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 28:5) Mankind will live in peace, happiness, and perfect health (Psalms 37: 9-11; Revelation 21: 3, 4 and Isaiah 33:24) May you draw comfort in the Creator's wonderful promises, and know that soon we will welcome our loved ones back, wrapping our arms around them once again. Hope that know this will take away some of your deep sorrow.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
