

Marlene Frances Daye

August 19, 1937 - May 22, 2003

Marlene Frances Daye was born on August 19, 1937 to the late Leola and John Hopkins in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Thursday, May 22, 2003, after a lengthy battle with cancer. The eldest of six offspring's, Marlene was raised in love with one sister, and four brothers. She attended Baltimore City Public Schools, and later graduated from Frederick Douglas High School, with aspirations of working in the field of nursing. While successfully pursuing her nursing career she met, and married the late Wiley Daye. Continuing on life's journey she began her own loving family tree with the birth of Yvonne, Lola, Chanel, and Dave Daye. She added many leaves to her ever-growing family. Marlene attended services regularly at Cornerstone Community Church. Upon leaving her chosen profession in nursing, she was employed by Maryland Dry Dock, where she retired after many years of dedicated service. In her departure she leaves a host of family, friends and other relatives to cherish the many fond memories they share.

Tribute Wall

“ Marlene Frances Daye

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Marlene Frances Daye

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My condolences to the family. The Bible aptly calls death and enemy that will be done away with(1 Corinthians 15:26). Another comforting promise is John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." I hope this brings you solace as it has to our family in times of loss.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM