

Marlowe L. Sherman

November 4, 1954 - November 18, 2016

Marlowe Levere Sherman, daughter of the late Henry and Verna Mae Moore, was born on November 4, 1954, in Williamston, North Carolina. She departed this life on November 18, 2016.

Marlowe married the late Robert Sherman. From this union, one daughter, Shanika Epps was born. She was also the loving mother of Tony Wagstaff, Jr. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and aunt.

Being a devoted member of the New Gethsemane Baptist Church, she was a faithful steward under the leadership of the late Rev. Jordan and currently Rev. Mills. During her time in service, she wore several church committee hats, to include: ushering, being a dedicated choir member, and trustee. She remained faithful in her worship to God through her illness and even until her last day on earth.

Marlowe had a big heart. Most times she would put the needs of others even before her own. She was known for her continuous phone calls just to say, "I'm checking on you" or "This is my weekly call." Her famous spaghetti and potato salad was a hit at every family or church gathering. Her home was always open to family and friends because of her kindness and hospitality.

She was well loved in her neighborhood and made friends wherever she would go.

Marlowe was preceded in death by: her husband, Robert Sherman; parents, Henry and Verna Mae Moore; and grandparents, Napoleon and Sally Rodgers.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Tony Wagstaff, Jr. and Bryant Sherman; two daughters, Shanika Epps and Arletha Montgomery; two daughter in-laws, Tamiera Wagstaff and Lisa Sherman; two son in-laws, Mwamba Epps and Brian Montgomery; two sisters, Sandra Moore-Cooper and Valerie Ferguson; three brothers, Bobby Moore, Sr., Ronald Moore, and Edward Parker; four brother in-laws, Melvin, Andre, Jerome, and Richard; two sister in-laws, Janice and Jean; thirteen grandchildren; two great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and a community of friends.
