

Marlowe Eugene Wax

February 18, 1972 - September 1, 2011

Marlowe E. Wax, Sr., son of Milton Wax and the late Rosemary Barber was born February 18, 1972 in Baltimore, MD. God called him home on Thursday, September 1, 2011.

Marlowe, affectionately known as Money, was educated in Baltimore City School System. Upon completion of his education, Money employed himself and was a provider like no other.

A love of sports was born out of his participation in them as a child. As loving baseball and football, it was only right that he was the driving support of his sons when they showed interest in little league sports. Money even tried his hand at coaching; he was so into his little league coaching that he took his coaching to the next level and tried “life” coaching everyone he knew.

If it was a gathering, it could turn to a party when Money showed up because it wasn't a party until he hit the “Money Dance.” Even being the life of the party can't cover all that Money meant to those he knew because at some point, he held the place of ROCK in many lives.

His childhood years in the Winchester Apartments shaped his love, of not just family, but also community. Money considered it all family. His love of family caused him to organize and work in his community.

Everyone could claim a special connection to Money in the roles he took on in our lives. He knew how to make you feel that way. Money was a son, grandson, father, brother, uncle, godfather, cousin, main man, homey and special friend. We've listed just a few, but you know what Money was to you.

He leaves to celebrate and remember him: his family of Baltimore, Maryland, devoted grandmother, Florence Fields; father, Milton, grandparents William and Naomi Wax; step-grandmother, Ozella Barber; sons, Derrel Jones, Antonio Jones and Marlowe Wax, Jr.; daughter Brittney Bryant; grandchildren, Malachi and De'Aja and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and other family members. Always at his side were his devoted grandmother, Florence and the love of his life, Dara.

“ My, My, My, where do I begin..... Money, Big Brother, Marlowe is what I called you when I was trying to be serious lol. I've known you for 18 yrs. I'm so lost for words right now, especially just finding out months later that you have left us. My heart so heavy right now, It's a feeling that I want someone to say "April Fools" that's how bad I didn't want to believe the news. I just want to thank you for teaching me how to be hard towards men LOL!, and most of all for being a Big Brother too me, and an uncle to the girls. I truly wish you were here to see DJ, but GOD doesn't make any mistakes, and he needed you more than we did. So rest easy Big Brother. Please know that I love you and will TRULY miss you.

Until next time..... Love always your lil sis, naia, & shamaya

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ Marlowe will be sadly missed. It brought a strain to my heart when I heard of his passing, but to be absent from the world is to be present with the Lord. You are going home, to be with your mother and those who have gone ahead. I lift your family up in my prayers, may you be strong and know that God is still in control and that he does not make any mistakes. Sometimes we may question ourselves and say what if....well nothing can change what God has planned, just know that we are all a gift from God, we are not promised to be here 1, 10. or 100 years but each day is a blessing and we must live each day as if it's our last. Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted.

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves have received from God. For just as the sufferings of Christ flow over into our lives, so also through Christ our comfort overflows Do not let your hearts be troubled, God will be with you during this time of mourning.
