

Marquerite B. James

December 7, 1921 - September 27, 2018

On December 7, 1921, in Baltimore, Thursday, September 27, 2018 the Lord called Marguerite James home. She was born to Sadie Dorsey and Lee Johnson.

“Mootney” as she was affectionately known, attended the Baltimore City public Schools. She pursued a career as a private duty nurse. After retirement from this field she enjoyed a second career in education.

Marguerite's pride and joy was her only daughter, Collin Scott, who preceded her in death.

She was a long-standing member of St. Matthew's Catholic Church. Marguerite's greatest pleasures were playing bingo and cards. She was known for hosting the best parties. She cherished the times she had with her grandsons as they grew up.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her life long friend, Vernita Lundy two grandsons, Gerard and Todd Scott (Alexander); one great-granddaughter, Blair Scott; and three great-grandsons, Evan Sean, and Collin Scott; and great-great-grandson Khalil Scott; a host of friends and family.
