

Marquis L. Smith

January 11, 1938 - September 26, 2001

Marquis L. Smith was born January 11, 1938 to Pinkie Smith and the late Joe McClendon in Wadesboro, N.C. He departed this life at the Lorien Nursing Home and September 26, 2001 after a lengthy illness. He was educated in the Anson County Training School in Wadesboro, N.C. As a young man he was employed at Gray & Sons as a construction worker. In later years the City of Baltimore at what was then called the Baltimore Civic Center employed him. He worked there for 15 years until he retired because of his disability. Marquis was a man of many nicknames ?Bobby, Joe, Smitty and Frankie,? he answered to all of them. Although he was not blessed with any children, he doted on his nieces, nephew and great-nieces and great-nephews who survive him. He was also a people-person who loved to talk and kid around. Everyone who knew him loved him and will not forget him. Marquis is survived by his mother: Pinkie Richardson; three sisters, Minnie Richardson, Linda Richardson and Patricia Crest; one nephew, Damion Barco; two nieces, Kenyetta Miles and Patrice Crest; two great-nieces, Brianna Barco, Tatyana Crest; one great-nephew, Amari Smith and one aunt Hattie Bennett, all of Baltimore, MD. Other relatives, cousins and friends also survive him.
