

Marquise S. Ridgeway

December 8, 1995 - April 26, 2003

Marquise Steven Ridgeway was born to Jermaine Ridgeway and the late Nicole Leslie Richardson on December 18, 1995. He departed this life on April 26, 2003. Marquise S. Ridgeway, known to family and friends as Marty, was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Marquise was an intelligent child. He loved to dance and sing with his mother, sisters and brother. Marquise always had a smile on his face. He was always willing to help his mother, sisters and brother. Marquise was a spirited child and full of life. He was a loving child who always gave out hugs and kisses to everyone. He leaves to cherish his memory: his father, Jermaine Ridgeway; sisters, Amanda (14), Brittany (13) Hamlin, Crystal Ridgeway (12); brother, Jermaine Ridgeway (10); grandmothers, Ruth Brooks and Patsy Ridgeway; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and extended family. He will always have a place in our hearts. MY LIL' MANI kick it to Marty to try to help him understand. Helped him with his schoolwork because that's my lil' man. He asked me a lot of questions about school and I told em'. So when he made a bad move it was my place to scold em'. Never told em' nothing wrong wouldn't dare. He saw de em girls so I might as well been talking to the air. Marty you can make mistakes it's alright. But don't forget to say your prayers when it's time to say good night. I should have spent much time with you, but sometimes you gotta do what you gotta do. April 26 was your biggest fear. I love you Marquise and swear I wish you were here. Alonzo Jackson
