

Marsena G. Harris-Barber

October 16, 1956 - August 6, 2025

Birth

MINISTER MARSENA G. HARRIS-BARBER, daughter of the late Mark and Beulah Harris, was born on October 16, 1956 in Brooklyn, New York. On August 6, 2025, Marsena received her well-deserved wings, and our Father God carried her to her heavenly home.

Education

At an early age, Marsena and her parents relocated to Newark, New Jersey. Marsena attended the Newark New Jersey Public School System graduating from Arts High School in 1974. Marsena had a true gift for singing and because of that, she furthered her education at Westminster Choir College earning a Bachelor of Arts in Music (Vocal). Having the desire to get closer to God, she also attended Pinecrest Bible Training Center earning a certificate of completion. In later years, she returned to school and earned a master's in organizational leadership from Liberty University.

Holy Matrimony

In 2006, Marsena met the love of her life at the bowling alley. Marsena and Derek united in holy matrimony on March 3, 2012.

Career

Marsena worked at ICF International for many years as a Data Consultant.

After retiring, she held part-time positions at the Enoch Pratt Free Library, Johns Hopkins Medical System, Trinity Episcopal Church, and Babcock Presbyterian Church.

Religious Affiliation

Marsena joined Gospel Tabernacle Baptist Church in 2010. Shortly after joining, she became a part of the music ministry. She sang on the Mass Choir, the Women of Praise, and the Victory Choir. Marsena was a gifted soprano who was sought after for solo performances, which will always be remembered. In May of 2017, Marsena received her license to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ under the leadership of Bishop Reginald Kennedy. She continued to be an ambassador of Christ until the end

Associations

Having a passion for helping others, Marsena was also a part of various faith-based organizations which included Catholic Charities, The Milt Mathews Foundation, Walbrook Vicinity of Churches, and she faithfully participated with the GTBC Diamond Club. Marsena was also a member of the Baltimore Ministers Conference.

Cherished Loved Ones

Marsena leaves to cherish her memory: her beloved husband, Derek; her brother; mother-in-law, Mrs. Virginia Barber; brother-in-law, Mr. Dana Barber; one sister-in-law, Glynis Barber, PhD; two aunts, Aunt Bea and Aunt Eunice; three nieces, Mashyra Durden, Jamila Curry and Izeta Akeem; three great-nieces, Aaron, Margaret and Teyanna; nephew, Eric; five great-nephews, Isaiah, Matthew, Maxwell, Michael and Trintin; godchild, Chris; special friends, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Carey, Minister JoyAnne Richardson, Mrs. Cynthia Henley, Mrs. Nelly Montgomery, Ms. Sarah Newsome, Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis; as well as a host of other family members and friends.

“ Marsena, Marsena, Marsena, how i am going to miss our 2hr plus catch up calls. We have kept track of each other since leaving Arts High School. From Westminster to Beaver and all points afterwards. i will miss you my friend because you were truly the one i could count on when i needed a Prayer Warrior to join forces with me. Derrick, she loved you so much and was proud to be your wife. 💕

Marsena, I will cherish my fond memories of us standing shoulder to shoulder in Mr. Howard's early morning chorus class at Arts High School, class of 1974, Newark NJ. I was glad to see you at our 40th class reunion, where we still remembered Latin phrases from Vivaldi's "Gloria!" My sincere condolences your husband, all family and friends. Rest in Peace, Marsena. 💕

“ Marsena and I have not seen each other since high school. We were very close in high school, but after we graduated we went our separate ways. However, thanks to Facebook, we rekindled our friendship. I am going to miss our conversations and her loving spirit. I know Marsena loved the Lord and she is with Him now. Sleep well my sister.

Love you Pam

Marsena was a Sister, roommate and friend. She was always there. She stood firm on her belief. She was whatever God needed her to be for whomever He directed her. She loved her husband, family and friends. One of my favor memories of her was when she was teaching me to drive and I went down a one way street which neither of us notice until we saw cars flashing their lights. She remain calm and keep me calm until we got back on the right street. Then we laugh and was thankful. She has join Sylvia and Sue whom are all now in the bosom of the Father. Miss you already Marsena.

*Marsena was not only a sister in Christ, but was also a neighbor. She would often call to see if I was going to any store that day. Then we'd do errands together.
Or, we'd ride together to Church. During these times, we had some very insightful conversations. We shared information about family, travels, healthy eating, and Church. I'm praying for husband, Derrick and family.
RIP Marsena.*
