

Marsha M Aiken

March 5, 1957 - January 8, 2024

Marsha Marie Aiken, daughter of the late James and Mary Aiken, was born on March 5, 1957, in the bustling city of Baltimore. She died unexpectedly January 8, 2024. Marsha had a delightful and exhilarating personality and lived a full and vibrant life.

Marsha graduated from Mergenthaler Vocational-Technical High School in Baltimore, Maryland in 1975. Later, she received an Associate of Arts Degree from the Baltimore City Community College.

She worked 37 years at the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in Washington DC and held an array of roles throughout her career. She was a dedicated employee and was not afraid to accept new work experiences. Her final position was as a Management and Program Analyst at the Office of the General Council.

Before the onset of her illness, Marsha was very active in her church community at St. Edward's Roman Catholic Church where she had been a longstanding member since childhood. She loved volunteering for her church community and giving to those who are less fortunate. Marsha was a church lector and volunteered with Christmas activities, which included providing gifts to children in the Rosemont community as well as the soup and sandwich distribution. Marsha also participated in the yearly back to school supply give-away and contributed to the inception of the St. Edward's Prayer Ministry.

Marsha had an immense love for going to the beach and traveling. She enjoyed swimming, animals, and sports, particularly the Baltimore Ravens football team. She took excellent care of her pets. Marsha's cat Ginger Snap really misses her.

Marsha leaves to cherish her memory: four siblings, Janice Aiken Torres, Allen Aiken, Jerome Aiken and Curtis Green; nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Marsha was a truly amazing friend. We worked together for a long time and survived many challenges in our career. I enjoyed our lunches with our other friends, especially when she would bring us Steak and Cheese subs from Baltimore. She will be missed. Rest in eternal peace my dear sister and friend. 💔 ”

“ *Cousin Marsha was always the life of the party
She treated me the same every time- with a smile - always upbeat - and loving
And boy, Marsha had a fantastic memory
She often shared stories about the family cat called Tom Slick and his zany adventures
We laughed for hours
Marsha loved the family tradition of chopping down your own
Christmas tree out in western Maryland
Next holiday - in honor of Marsha - consider making the trip to chop down your own tree
So proud of Marsha for her dedicated service to the FBI
Rest in peace sweet angel
Love always,
Cousin Stefany*
