

Marsha Lynn Cole

January 31, 1976 - January 19, 2025

Marsha Lynn Cole was born on January 31, 1976, to Clifton and Marie Cole. She departed this life on January 19, 2025, after a lengthy illness.

Marsha was educated in Baltimore County Public Schools. She received an Associate of Arts degree in accounting from the Community College of Baltimore County. She worked for several accounting firms before a job transfer sent her to Virginia Beach.

Marsha had a gentle and loving spirit. She loved to cook creative and diverse types of cuisines. She was a foodie who grew her own herbs.

Marsha became a member of Morning Star Baptist Church after visiting at the invitation of a friend. She came home and told her mom about the service and how Bishop Debnam seemed to be speaking directly to her in the sermon. After she moved away, Marsha continued to be a faithful member of the church worshipping virtually. Marsha also has a brick on the front walkway of the prayer garden with her name on it. She would often call her mom to discuss how the sermon or a song spoke to a situation or problem in her life.

Even though Marsha suffered pain daily, she lived her life with courage and strength. Despite her health challenges, she never lost her praise. As the scripture records, "She has run her race, finished the course and kept the faith."

and know she awaits her crown.

Marsha leaves to cherish her memory, Her Mother ,Marie Cole and father Clifton Cole,one brother,Jelani Cole ,one sister Linnea Howley,(Will Howley),nieces Caelyn Cole and Quinn Howley ,one nephew Cameron Howley,aunts Ellarae Stansbury of farmville, Virginia and Jackie Lee,uncles Willie Lewis,Melvin Lewis and Jeffrey Lewis ,and a host of other family members.
