“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to your family. I did not know Ms. Lee, but I want to share some comforting words from Jehovah God found in the Bible at Rev. 21:4 which says, "(Jehovah) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more..." What a wonderful promise! This promise has brought comfort to millions. I hope you will find the same comfort.##imported-begin##Mceil##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry that you lost your loved one. I too, know how it feels to lose someone you love. It is truly devastating, and it is something that we never get used to or ever forget. Time does help to ease the sorrow a bit. One day soon we won't have to bury our loved ones again, because we won't have any need for funeral homes or cementaries. Because soon God promises that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more." Psalm 68:20 lets us know that Jehovah is the God of all salvation, and only he knows the ways out from death." One day the dead will hear the voice of the Son of Jehovah God, and they will come up out of the memorial tombs. John 5:25-29. As you reflect on this scripture, remember that it is a promise from the God of all comfort, whom the scriptures says of him; it is impossible for God to lie. Hebrews 6:18. If we put our faith and trust in him, and are obedient children of God, then when they are brought back from the dead, we have the promise that we will see them again. May those thoughts bring you much comfort.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
