

Marsha Louise Payne

August 2, 1951 - May 30, 2006

MARSHA LOUISE PAYNE, beloved daughter of Louise V. Payne and the late Cornelius V. Payne was born on August 2, 1951 as the first born child to her parents. Marsha suddenly departed this world to be with our Lord and Savior on May 30, 2006. Marsha attended Louisa May Alcott Elementary and Pimlico Junior High school. After graduating from Western High School in 1969, she ventured to New York City to pursue her dreams in fashion. Marsha attended La Maison School of Dressmaking and Design, majoring in Fashion Illustration and Design. She graduated in 1974. Marsha remained in New York working at Saks Fifth Avenue for 15 years. She returned home and attended Baltimore City Community College to further her fashion design aspirations. Marsha has been a member of New Shiloh Baptist Church for over 50 years. She was baptized into the faith by the late Rev. J. Timothy Boddie at the age of 11. Marsha was a member of the youth choir and occasionally served in the nursery. Marsha was a very easy-going, friendly person. She could hold a conversation with anyone. Marsha had a great personality that everyone could see and a loving, generous heart that could stretch for a mile. In her spare time, she crocheted baby blankets and made beautiful jewelry. Marsha had a close relationship with her mother. They did everything together from shopping to watching movies at home. She always said, "My mother is my company keeper." Marsha will truly be missed by everyone that met and knew her. She leaves to mourn: her mother Louise V. Payne; two sisters, Mrs. Valerie C. Payne-Murphy and Karen V. Payne; one brother-in-law, Michael

Murphy; one niece, Vickie Payne; three nephews, Gerard Rowell, Brian and Jason Hines; two great-nephews, Steven Nelson and Myron Austin, Jr.; four aunts; two uncles; cousins; her best , Rhonda Diggs-Wilcox; and a host of friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am writing to send my deepest condolences to the family of Marsha Louise Payne. I did not know her personally, yet I have experienced the lost of a loved one. In addition, I feel led to invite the survivors of Marsha to my home church: Set the Captives Free in Woodlawn. My church holds a bi-monthly bereavement ministry (2nd/4th Mondays @7p) called Life after Loss. It has helped me a great deal and I pray that you allow for it to assist you in such a time as this. May God Bless you!###imported-begin##Angie##imported-end##
