

Marsha Miller

April 11, 1950 - April 8, 2009

A Time To Be Born Marsha A. Miller was born Marsha Ann Johnson to Herbert and Lucy Johnson on April 11, 1950 in Harrisburg, PA. She was the youngest daughter of six children, and grew up sheltered and protected by her siblings. Marsha's timid and soft-spoken demeanor was one of her most appealing attributes. She had a nurturing spirit, a quiet nature, and a heart of gold.

A Time To Live Marsha began her formal education in Harrisburg, PA and ended it in the Bronx, New York- where she graduated from Walton High School. She later attended the College of New Rochelle in New York City and took classes at Montgomery County Community College in Pennsylvania. After graduating from High School, she began an eighteen- year career with Merrill Lynch. After relocating to Pennsylvania, Marsha took a position with the State of Pennsylvania's Office of the Attorney General. She cared for her ailing mother and was by her side when she passed in 1993. After the death of her mother, Marsha lived with her sister Thelma and brother-in-law James until her marriage to Wendell E. Miller on June 26, 2004. Upon her marriage, she relocated to Owings Mills, MD and worked for Medical Mutual Insurance Company.

A Time To Serve At the age of thirteen, Marsha gave her life to Christ and started her servant-hood at New Bethel Way of the Cross Church of Christ in New York City. She was a member of the Youth for Christ Choir, The Usher Board, The Zionettes, worked in the Junior Church and numerous other jobs to which she was called. She also served as the National Youth for Christ Recording Secretary. In Pennsylvania, she was a member of Love

Fellowship Tabernacle Church under the leadership of Bishop Hezekiah Walker. She continued to serve the Lord with her husband at Refuge Way of the Cross Church of Christ from 2004. While at Refuge, she was a member of the LHC Choir, Sunday school, and the Women's Ministry. Marsha also worked in other ministries and on many fund-raising committees. A Time to Die On Wednesday, April 8, 2009 our Heavenly Father called Marsha to His eternal home. She leaves behind to cherish her memory, her husband Wendell; three stepsons, Sean Miller (Yolanda), David Miller (Sherrie) , and Andre Miller; two step-grandchildren, Khali and Kaelin Miller; two sisters Geraldine Porter (William) and Thelma Williams (James); three brothers Hubert Terry, Harold Johnson (Elizabeth) and Gary Johnson; a host of nieces, nephews, and other family members too numerous to mention.

“Marsha, I believe that a christian's whole purpose in life is this very moment, when we get to stand before the lord and hear those cherished words "well done, my good and faithful servant." My flesh was saddened when I heard the news of your passing, however, my soul rejoices for you. You were an inspiration to me in the lord. Love you my sista!...You are home! May your soul rejoice for ever more!##imported-begin##Sharon M Faust##imported-end##

“I met Marsha thru Allstate and only over the phone. I thought of her as a true friend. I missed her when she retired and asked about her often. I have thought of her many times over the years hoping she was doing well. I missed talking to her every week and not just about work. Now I find I will never meet her in this life, and will now know I will meet her in our next life. I knew she was a very special person and I will continue to miss her.##imported-begin##Joan Smith##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I'm so sorry that you lost your dear loved one. losing a loved one pains us like no other event in our lives, and I know that God will give you the comfort that you need to see you through. One day death will be a thing of the past, because Jehovah never desired for any of us to die in the first place. Death came through the sin of Adam, but through the obedience of Jesus, all who exercisse faith in the ransom that he paid, will recieve everlasting life. Romans 5:19 says, "For just as through the disobedience of the one man (Adam), many were constituted sinners, likewise also through the obedience of the one person (Jesus), many will be constituted righteous. Also 1st Cor 15:22 says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." Then verse 26 promises: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Can you imagine living at a time when no resident will say, I am sick? Isiah 33:24 Can you imagine a time when the dead will actually hear the voice of Jesus Christ, and they will come out alive from the memorial tombs? John 5:28,29 All of these promises will soon come true, because Heb 6:18 tells us that it is impossible for God to lie." One day Marsha, as well as millions of others, will be ressurected back to life. May you be comforted by the hope of the ressurection, and may your precious memories of Marsha sustain you until that glorious day of salvation arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
