

Marshall Sherman Johnson

March 18, 1943 - July 13, 2016

Marshall S. Johnson, affectionately known as "John", "Moo-Moo" and "Butch", was the son of the late George "Daddy Lee" and Mary "Mamie" Johnson. He was born March 18, 1943 in Edgewood, MD. God decided to call him home on July 13, 2016.

Marshall received his education at Wiley Bated High School in Annapolis MD. At the age of 20 he enlisted in the army, where he served his country from 1963-1966. After an honorable discharge, Marshall began working as a correctional officer for Patuxent Institution in 1967. He was in the position for 37 years and built lifetime friendships. Marshall was a longtime member of the Empowerment Temple and later joined True Church of Christ for Sinners Only in his hometown.

He married Beverly Ann Nelson on December 19, 1987. God blessed them with six children- Marshall, Alonzo, Lorraine, Laird, Kiah, and Jonathan.

Marshall made numerous friends wherever he went. He would travel near and far with his card buddies and went weekly to the League to swim. Marshall enjoyed going to family gatherings and parties. He loved to do things around the house such as decorate and garden. He was a true friend, husband, father, and grandfather. He had a special bond with his grandsons Jonathan Jr., Malik, and Mekhi and their mom Shemia. Marshall was always there for his loved ones.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Beverly Nelson Johnson; siblings, Dorothy Jones, Francis Sharp (Helen), McAuthur Johnson (Evelyn); Nancy Russ (William), Joyce Brown, Linda Robinson, and Leon Johnson (Sheryl); in-laws, Cynthia Shaw, Gwendolyn Bryant (Glen) Patricia Hamlin(Kenneth), and Yvonne Nelson; sons Marshall (Margaret), Alonzo (April), Laird (Margaret), Kiah (Rochelle), Johnathan (Monique), and daughter, Lorraine; and host of grandchildren, godchildren, nices, nephews, others relatives and friends.

“ So Sad to hear of Your Passing Moo...You were truly a Friend to Everyone that Meet You. You taught me so much like how to cut my grass and planting my flower bed...even though you used that awful manure. Always a Kind and Gentle (Hunched Back) Giant. "We All Loved You" Jackie Cooper Patuxent

“ I had worked with Marshall for over TWENTY-FIVE years and he and I became very good friends. He shall be missed by SO MANY friends that he worked with at Patuxent. In all of the years that i knew him we all called him "MOE MOE" I for one did not know that his middle name was SHERMAN. He shall always be "MOE MOE" TO ME , A FRIEND FOR LIFE.
