

Martha J. Acree

February 9, 1933 - December 24, 2017

On Sunday December 24, 2017 Martha made a plan with the Lord to get a place ready so God reached out and answered her prayers to take her home to be with the Lord. She was in such a hurry to reach the Lord to be able to celebrate his birthday with him. She has traveled a long hard lengthy road and her body was worn out from all of the battles she had to fight and their were many battles.

Martha was born to Ellison Faulkner and Janie Johnson February 9, 1933 in Charlestown, West Virginia. She later moved to Baltimore, Maryland as a young teenager with her family. She attended Dunbar High School.

Martha later went on to marry George Lee Acree, which produced four children, Charles Lee Acree, Debbie Antoinette Matthews, Rhonda Rochelle Acree, Brian Edward Acree. Martha worked for the school system where she was head of the Custodial Department for 20 years, later retiring in 1996.

She enjoyed attending her church, Faith Baptist until it was difficult to attend at times due to her illness.

She enjoyed working in her garden, always planting something. Martha also enjoyed her western movies.

Martha leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Charles Acree, Brian Acree; two daughters, Debbie Matthews and Rhonda Rochelle Acree which is deceased; sister, Shirley Mae Trotter; son-in-law, Norman Matthews; seven grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren; and a host of relatives and friends.
