“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. We are all tired of burying our loved ones. This pain is just not right. Know too that God did not desire this sorrow for his human family. That is why we pray the Lord's prayer which says, "Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, just as it is in heaven. One day this prayer will be answered, because God promises that he will do away with all sickness and death. 1st Cor 15,26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Also Daniel 12,2 tells us that there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Jesus also said at John 11:25, "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies; will come to life. "When we read and meditate on scriptures such as these we receive the assurance that Jehovah God cares about what we go through. He hasn't forgotten us down here on earth, and he has wonderful things in store for those who love him. Most of all he promises that if we are faithful we will see our loved ones again for John 3:16 says, "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." May you receive much comfort and strength to help you to carry on.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
