“ To the family of Martha Ann Alston -

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. That pain is not necessarily erased by mere words that I express and others. It takes time and comfort from God's word the Bible.

The Bible holds a message of hope. It let us know that it is possible to be reunited with your dead loved one in the near future. And at that time humans will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and they will never have to die again. This is not wishful thinking! Jesus Christ boldly promised: "Just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus'] voice and come out." (John 5:21, 28, 29)
