“ To the family, my deepest condolences. May you cherish her memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it cause. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Elliot Family, Please accept my condolences on the passing of Martha. This enemy death truly lives up to its name (enemy). However, our Almighty God, who is a God of love, promises that he will do away with that enemy forever(Isaiah 25:8,9). May you be comforted by the fact that you will see Martha again in the resurrection (John 5:28,29)##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I'd like to express my sincere condolences to you and your family. Death is a difficult thing to deal with, but Almighty God gives us comfort from the Bible. He promises at Daniel 12:2 that "...there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up..." We hope that by reflecting on God's promises, it will be a strengthening aid to you and your family during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Sandy Sloane##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from "... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us all in all our tribulations. He is also the same God who promises that soon there will be a resurrection of those who went asleep in death. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 and John 5:28,29. May you find solace from these scriptures.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
