

Martha Howard Miles

July 12, 1937 - February 8, 2003

Martha Miles, daughter of the late Harry Player, Sr. and Martha Player, was born July 12, 1937 in Darlington, South Carolina. She was the last child of thirteen children. She received her formal education in the public schools of Darlington. In 1953, Martha moved to Baltimore, where she began working at Bugle Laundry. From there she obtained her Cosmetology License. Finally, after thirty years of service as a Presser Operator at London Fog she retired. In 1960 Martha married the late George Howard. In 1970 Martha married William R. Miles. Martha, affectionately known as "Tut," enjoyed gardening, doing hair and sewing. Her favorite foods were lake trout, chitterlings, pineapple-upside-down cake, and watermelon. Her favorite color was pink. She had a great sense of humor. She always put her family first. Martha was known to say, "You reap what you sow." To know her was to love her. She became an active member and was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses in 1957. She remained faithful to the best of her ability until her untimely departure, Saturday, February 8, 2003. She leaves to mourn: two sons, Michael Player and Andrew Howard; one daughter, Davaji Miles (Nikki); two daughters-in-law, Lisa Howard and the late Darcell Player; six grandchildren, Nicole, Ryan, Juanita, Nikya, Gregory and Jordan; one great-grandson, Darryl; two sisters, Mary Jackson and Diane Smith; three sisters-in-law, Marie, Annie Mae and Wilamena; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends will cherish her memory.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
