

Martha M. Johnson

April 20, 1938 - August 16, 2013

MARTHA KING JOHNSON was born on April 20, 1938 in Sharon, Georgia to the late Brad King Sr. and the late Martha Collins King. She went from labor to reward on August 16, 2013.

Martha received her education in Rural, Taliferio County, Georgia and Murden High School in Crawford, Georgia. In later years her father moved the family to Oakland, Florida.

Martha was married to the late Bernard Johnson of Paulsboro, New Jersey. Mr. Johnson was a Harness Racing Horse Trainer and they traveled a lot.

Martha soon left New Jersey and moved to Baltimore, Maryland to be close to family. Martha became employed with London Fog for many years. She was a very skillful tailor, seamstress and interior decorator. Later, she did private duty work until she retired.

Martha followed her home teaching of attending church. She joined Bethel A.M.E. Church and attended for many years. Later she joined the Sharon Seventh Day Adventist Church where she attended until her health began to fail. Martha made numerous friends wherever she went due to her kind and friendly spirit. She was a very good cook and loved to entertain. Her favorite saying was, "If I can help someone as I go through this life journey then my living was not in vain.” Her favorite colors were purple and white. She loved all types of music but her favorite song was “God Is Standing By” by The Soul Stirrers

She was preceded in death by her brother, Robert King.

She leaves to her passing: two sisters, Ossie Mae Brooks of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida and Helen K. Scott (Deacon Earnest) of Orangeburg, South Carolina; brother, Brad King Jr. of Baltimore, Maryland; sister-in-law, Annie King of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends, including a devoted, special companion and friend, Will Harris.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ God is the God of all comfort "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, the father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort." 2 Corinthians 1:3
So sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. When we draw close to God he will draw close to us; one way to do this is through prayer - the value of prayer is not underestimated.
