“ There are no words of sympathy that can erase the pain you feel, but I hope that it helps to know that others care, may it comfort you to know that Jehovah God has promise to remove death forever very, soon and those who love him will be able to rejoice in seeing the fulfillment of his everlasting promises. “ please accept my heartfelt sympathy. it has been 3 months since your loved one died, but i am sure you are still hurting. we never forget our loved one no matter how much time passes. one day soon Jehovah will erase all the pain from our hearts permanently, because he will end sickness and death forever. for Isaiah 25:8 promises that the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Then we will have the unspeakable joy of being reunited with our loved ones again, and they never have to die again. John 5:28,29 tells us that all those in the memorial tombs or graves will hear Jesus's voice and come out. May you find much comfort and hope in the promises found in the bible.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what’s more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is to come.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
