

Martha Moore

January 13, 2011

MATHA B. MOORE, daughter of the late George and Sarah Muldrow, was born on February 12, 1921 in Darlington, South Carolina.

In later years, her family moved to Baltimore, Maryland. She was a domestic worker for the Barbara DeVan family for many years.

Aunt Martha, as she was affectionately called, was a loving, kind and giving person. She loved to travel and looked forward to the family's Friday get-together fellowships.

She joined the Order of the Eastern Star Adah Chapter #18 O.E.S. In 1956. She held several offices over the years. She was a very dedicated member.

Aunt Martha was one of the first organizers of her church, Hallelujah Baptist Church. She loved her Lord, Jesus Christ, her church family and her pastor, Bishop Larry Exum. She was one of the Mothers of the church, treasurer of the Usher and president of the Benevolent Committee.

Her husband, Marshall J. Moore, and her brother, Ezekiel brown, Sr. preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her special nephew, McKeever Brown; her special, loving DeVan Family; two nephews, Ezekiel Brown, Jr. (Patricia) and Charles Brown (Betty); her niece, Vernell McCain of South Carolina; sister-in-law, Etta Brown; and a host of great and great-great-niece, nephews, cousin and friend.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time . Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this difficult time, you can be comforted by the wonderful hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." Yes we have the wonderful prospect of embracing our deceased loved ones again, all made possible by the shed blood of Jesus Christ.
