

Martha Pearl Green

September 4, 1929 - September 9, 2002

Martha Pearl Green was born in Baltimore, Maryland on September 4, 1929 to the late Martha Bowman and James Henry Blake. She was raised in Baltimore in the Sandtown Winchester area, where she received her education at St. Peter Claver Catholic School, and married Julius Jacob Green, Sr. She then went on to work for Continental Can Company for some years before going on to a number of other jobs. Martha, lovingly called “Little Sis” by family and friends, was always a strong and spirited person. She touched everyone that she met throughout her life in their own special way. Martha departed this life on September 9, 2002 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. She leaves behind to mourn: her daughter, Thomasine Delores Halley; three sons, Thomas Edward Jones, Wayne Simpson and Julius Jacob Green, Jr.; eleven grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren, along with a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins, many other relatives and friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
