

Martha Contee Pendleton

November 7, 1933 - June 4, 2018

Martha Pendleton, daughter of the late George and Sarah Contee, was born on November 7, 1933 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was married to the late Carl E. Pendleton, Sr. She departed her life June 4, 2018.

Martha, known to many as “Marty”, was education at Benjamin Banneker Elementary School and Dunbar High School. After an early retirement from Western Electric, She enrolled at The Community College of Baltimore, where she earned a Associate of Arts Degree. She then, went on to Morgan State University to study paralegal law. She became an advocate for those affected by asbestos, handicapped individuals, and Seniors who felt they had no voice. She used her knowledge to fight for justice and human rights for all people! Because of the causes she believed in, she received numerous awards and citations, from noted dignitaries including Julian Bond, Rosa Parks, The Honorable Kurt Schmoke, and the Honorable William Donald Schaffer. Her family affectionately called her “Michee” and she was about family. She was extremely proud of everything anyone achieved. She loved the arts and sports. It was her hearts desire to see Venus and Serena Williams play, so she traveled in her wheelchair to New York to see the US Open tennis match and saw them!

She was extremely smart, let's not forget, “Jr., It's time for Jeopardy!” She never missed an episode. She knew EVERYTHING and easily beat Jr, most of the time!

Marty leaves to survive her only child Carl E. Pendleton, Jr, his wife Vicki and her grand daughter Jennifer. One sister, Annabelle Hughley. One Nephew, James Hughley., Jr., Nieces, Glenda McKinney, Sheila Williams, Yvonne Hughley, and Ursula Carter, and a host of Great Nieces and nephews, family and friends, including a special son, Ralph Wright and Gally her aide, who will continue to miss her!

And of course, the family pet, Copper, says "Don't forget about him!"
