

Martha Price

September 15, 1942 - March 25, 2006

MARTHA PRICE was born in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the daughter of the late John and Elizabeth Allen. She was the mother of Randy Price, who preceded her in death. She departed this life on Saturday, March 25, 2006 at Sinai Hospital. Martha attended Baltimore City Public School. Martha loved music, also she liked to dance and go bowling and play bingo. Martha was a very kind-hearted and gentle person. If anyone needed help, she was always there, ready to help them in anyway she could. She was a devoted wife and a loving and caring sister and aunt. Dear Martha, we will miss you. She leaves to mourn: her husband, James Price; three sisters, Rose Allen, Mae Allen and Louise McClelland; one brother, James Allen; four nephews, Bernard Allen, Tyrone Allen and Kelvin D. McClelland and Tyrone Price Jr.; niece, Denise Allen; other relatives and friends. Sorrowfully submitted, The Family

Tribute Wall

“ Martha Price

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My sincere condolences to the family. In difficult times such as this, it is comforting to know that the holy scriptures can be a source of comfort. John 11:25 expresses a resurrection hope that we all can look forward to in the future. Please read Jesus Christ expressions about the resurrection at John 11:20-27. In your reading, may you find a measure of comfort and encouragement from the Holy Scriptures.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Death is an unwelcome situation in all our lives today. Yet we seem not to be able to escape the effects of death at one time or the other. Death is often thrust upon us due to natural causes, illness or some unforeseen occurrence, not to mention the after effects of some thoughtless and often in today’s world the cruel course of action of some uncaring person. Whatever the case is death was never a part of Jehovah God’s plan for mankind. Jehovah God’s word the bible help many to revitalize their hope in a much happier and peaceful future for our love ones who have lost their lives in death. Yes thanks to Jehovah God the resurrection is our hope for the near future. According to John 5:28, 29 the memorial tombs will open and those sleeping in death will awaken. While we may be separated from our love ones now, it is a temporary condition. Rev 21: 3, 4 states death will be no more... and that is a promise. Jehovah promised everlasting life from the beginning of mankind’s creation stated at Titus 1: 2 and according to Isaiah 55: 11 it is said of Jehovah the words that goes forth from his mouth will prove to be. It will not return without results... Hopefully these words can prove to be of comfort because our hope can only become a reality by means of Jehovah God and his son Christ Jesus. Remember, Hebrews 6:18 states it is IMPOSSIBLE for God to lie. May the comfort of God be with you.##imported-begin##B Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am so very sorry that you had to lose your precious loved one in death. When death happens we see how truly wrong death is. It's such a crushing blow to the family and friends. Jehovah God did not want things to be this way. When he created Adam and Eve, he created them with the prospect of living forever. Sadly, they lost out on that hope for themselves and their offspring because of their disobedience to their creator. Even so, it is still Jehovah's purpose for people to live forever in peace, and soon that purpose will be a reality. Isaiah 25:8 tells us, "He will actually swallow up death forever, and will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Isn't that a beautiful scripture, and it's not a fantasy, because everything God promises will come true. Every promise he made in the past came true for his people, so we have every reason to believe that everything he promises in the future will also come true, because he is a God who the bible says cannot lie. So one day we will be reunited with our dead loved ones, on that you can depend. I pray you find comfort in his word as well as your precious memories. ##imported-begin## R Johnaon ##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM