

Martha Washington Thomas

February 22, 1929 - June 25, 2012

Martha Washington Lawson Thomas departed this life on June 25, 2012, at Mercy Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. She was born on February 22, 1929, in South Hill, Mecklenburg County, Virginia, to the late John Edward Lawson and Anna Gray Harper Lawson.

Martha was educated in the Mecklenburg County School System. At an early age, she united with Whittle Grove Baptist Church in South Hill. Martha married David Thomas in 1950 and together they moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. They later relocated to Washington, D.C. but divorced in 1964. A few years later, Martha moved to Baltimore, Maryland to be near her sister Lucy. Here she joined Ark Missionary Baptist Church. At the time of her death, she was a faithful member of Rosemont Community Church. She truly loved the Lord and her church family; they were dear to her heart.

Martha loved to fish with her sister Lucy. During recent weeks, she wanted to know, from her nephew, when he was going fishing. She made sure she put her bid in for "her" share of the catch. Martha was a great homemaker and gracious hostess. She always spoke fondly of her nieces and nephews. Martha was preceded in death by her four sisters, Eva Baskerville, Nellie Phillips, Ruth Lawson and Lucy Lawson and one brother, Charlie Lawson.

Those of us who will forever rejoice in her memory are: a loving sister, Sarah

Lawson of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; a sister-in-law, Daisy Lawson Wallace also of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; a loving nephew, Miller Lawson of Silver Springs, Maryland; devoted friend, Lester Calvin and a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives and friends

“ To the Thomas Family:

Martha and I grew up together in South Hill, and I am saddened to hear of her death. I will truly miss her, and pray that each day becomes a little easier to bare as your family continues to grieve Martha's passing.

With love and respect,

Carrie Jones-Tarver
