

Martha Y. Tate

February 24, 1967 - January 7, 2005

Martha Y. Tate daughter of the late Tyrone Tate and Delrose Tate was born on February 24, 1967 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life after a brief illness. Martha (known as Landa) was raised by her grandmother the late Mrs. Mildred Tate in Baltimore where she received her education in the Baltimore Public School System. Landa had a joyful soul singing and dancing everywhere she went. No matter how things went she always had a smile on her face. She also played the mother to several of the neighborhood children as well as the raising of her own. Preceding her in death are: Kennrick Damonta and Kasmonta (grandchildren). She leaves to mourn: three daughters, Nicole Steth Nikki; Shannon Wilson and Danille Dickens; three sons, Emanuel Dickens (Manny), Tyrell Dickens and Tyrone Dickens; twelve (12) grandchildren, three brothers, Tyrone Tate, the late Jerome Tate and Keith Tate; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family: Please accept my condolences. The Bible tells us that death is an "enemy" that separates our loved ones from us.(1 Corinthians 15:26) But it won't always be this way. Because that same scripture says that death will be "brought to nothing", that means that God will get rid of death. Also the Bible gives the hope of seeing our dead loved ones live again, but under better conditions in a paradise earth. (Please turn to your Bible and read Hosea chapter 13, verse 14) I hope this message gives you much comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family, I want to express my sincere condolences on the passing of your loved one. Losing a person in death is unnatural because Jehovah God did not make us to die. He promises to give us comfort in our time of need because at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 it states that he is the God of all comfort. Another way he comforts us is by the hope laid out in the scriptures. Please read John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3,4; Psalm 37:10,11. Again, please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the Family & Friends: I am sorry to learn of your loss. I send my sincere condolences. It might seems unfair that sickness, which can cause death, has the power to take away someone that we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. At Revelation 21: 3, 4 the Almighty God, promise that "death will be no more". He also, promise to bring back to life our dearly beloved ones.(John 5: 28&29) I pray that you rely on our Heavenly Father for comfort now and the days to come.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##
