

Martinez Johnson, Sr.

December 2, 1954 - May 17, 2026

Martinez Johnson Sr. was born on December 2, 1954, in Wagner, South Carolina to Jeanette Davis and the late A. B. Johnson. He departed this life on May 17, 2026, after a short illness due to a massive stroke. Martinez was known to many of his friends and family as Bubble Jr., Bub Sub, Bubbles, or Marty. He was a very loving and affectionate person and loved making people laugh. Martinez loved all sports, and anyone who knew him would call him a sports fanatic. Martinez attended and graduated from the Baltimore City Public School System. Martinez worked at Johnson and Johnson Control Electric company and the United States Postal Service.

Martinez was preceded in death by his bother-in-law Mystic; three brothers Clarence Bowman, Joseph Bowman, and James H. Davis Jr. (Fatso);

Martinez leaves to cherish his memory two children; Lavinia Johnson and Martinez Johnson Jr., his mother Jeanette Davis and stepfather James H. Davis Sr., three sisters Eva (Lynn) Stewart, Eunice (Little Bit) Johnson (Clifton), Cassandra (Kim) Reid (Avery Sr.); two brothers Edward Phillips and Bernard Bowman (Tephane); two aunts Dora and Judy Salley, one uncle Rudolph Salley; two grandchildren Lionel Ray Jr. and Earl Ross Jr.; two great-grandchildren Kylani Ray and Kleo Ray and Baby Ross who's on the way and his future granddaughter-in-law Kyla Chadwick; and a host of other nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
