

Marva Bowman

January 26, 1940 - May 27, 2014

MARVA EMELIA WILLIAMS-BOWMAN, daughter of the late Frank and Theresa Williams, was born on January 26, 1940 in Colon, Republic of Panama. She departed this life on May 27, 2014 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in Colon, Panama. At the age of sixteen, she came into the U.S. and continued her education.

She was employed full-time at the Harbor Hospital for 29 years until she retired.

She loved traveling with the seniors, visiting her sister, going to weddings and just going to social gatherings. She was a very giving person, she would give you the shirt off her back if need be. To know Marva was to love Marva.

Marva married Sam C. Bowman in 1990. She was preceded in death by two brothers, Augusta Williams and Helario Angel.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Sam C. Bowman; two children, Reginald Williams and Cynthia Williams; stepson, Ronnie Crumpton; sister, Beverly McMahan (Ben McMahan); brother, Ray Williams; close family friend, Corey Shell; a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, loving neighbors and friends.

The Lord saw me getting tired when a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around me and whispered, "Come to Me,"
You didn't deserve what you went through, so He told me to rest,
God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best.
And when He saw me sleeping, so peaceful and free from pain,
I could not wish you back to suffer that again.

Love you all,

Peace, Amen!
