

Marva Denise Frazier

October 18, 1972 - July 15, 2024

Born on October 18, 1972 in Baltimore, Maryland Marva was affectionately known as Marva Lous by family and friends, She was the cherished daughter of Clinton Fraizer-El and the late Ethal Faye Curry Hall, Her early years in Catonsville, Md were marked by the formation of lifelong friendships and cherished memories. Seeking new horizons, Marva moved to South Carolina where she attended Manning High School, graduating with the class 1990. She then pursued a degree in English at Coppin State College where she was socially active and joined the Alpha Sweethearts an organization that introduced her to the father of her children.

In 1999, Marva married Alan E Wallace. Together they had 4 children before they divorced Marva was a devoted mother who always prioritized her children. She volunteered at school functions, served as a class mom carpooled regularly was an active football mom. and even led a Girl Scouts troop while living on Gwinnett Georgia. She delighted in cooking for her family, particularly enjoying recipes that featured lots of cheese. Hosting friends and family in her home brought her immense joy and she always loved the comforting scents that made her home feel peaceful and calm.

As a true Libra Marva took great pride in her appearance, Her last Facebook post on June 26th showcased her impeccable style infectious smile and zest for life. Thoughtful devoted compassionate and full of mother wit her door was always open, She had a sociable friendly spirit that captivated those around her and her quick wit and sharp tongue left a lasting impression.

“ Although time and space did allow us to fellowship regularly we still called each other beasties, we often laughed about our pasts. We were fools when we would venture to Mexican restaurant [her favorite food]. Oh we had such great times. I never would've thought I would have to say farewell so soon to our earthly friendship. I will truly miss you my dear friend. And My condolences to the family may God bless you all.
