

Marvin Clarke Dean

November 9, 1948 - June 9, 2018

Marvin Clarke Dean was born to the late Henry and Georgia Dean in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on November 9, 1948. he departed this life on June 9, 2018.

He was educated in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania Public School System and graduated from Germantown High School. He furthered his education at J. Sargent Reynolds Community College and Virginia Commonwealth University.

In 1971, Marvin and Arnita Webb were united in holy matrimony. They later moved to Richmond, Virginia.

He worked for several large corporations as a Systems Analyst throughout the years. He retired from the State of Virginia Social Services Department with over 20 years of dedicated service.

He loved his family, traveling, television, cooking, dining out, photography, Jazz music, cars, and going to BJ's. He enjoyed watching most sports, his favorites being tennis, football and basketball. He also worked out and exercised daily, was involved in civic activities before his health began to fail.

When he came to Virginia, he impressed his brothers-in-law with his knowledge of cars, sports, and his skills at playing football, basketball, chess and monopoly. He loved to show off his "showroom conditioned" 1967 GTO Sports car and told many tall-tales about its speed.

Marvin was preceded in death by his brother, Patrick Dean. He leaves to cherish his memory, a caring wife, Arnita Dean; brother, Russell Dean (Phyllis); sister, Edith Thomas; a special cousin, Dorothy Williams, all of Philadelphia; six brothers-in-law; five sisters-in-law, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.
