

Marvin Roland Fields

May 6, 1959 - February 16, 2020

Marvin Roland Fields of Atlanta, GA. formerly of Richmond, VA. transitioned from labor to reward on Sunday February 16, 2020. Marvin was born May 6, 1959 to the late Harold R. Smith and Gladys Fields of Henrico County. Marvin, affectionately known as "Horse", preceded in death by his parents and six siblings, James, Judith, Geraldine, Mary, Clarence and Waverly. He leaves to cherish his memory, one daughter Jackie Williams, two sons Alduha Leon, Almodad Taylor, stepson, James Taylor, five sisters, Veronica, Melwood, Debra (Jimmy), Jean, Rochelle, one aunt, Doris Glenn, a devoted companion Monica Taylor, devoted friends Maria Leon, Rhea Williams, his childhood friend Keith Greenway and a host of other relatives and friends.

Marvin attended Henrico County Public School. He enlisted in the United States Army from 1979 to 1989. He completed his military career as a Drill Sargent and was honorably discharged. Prior to his illness he worked for Intonu, LLC as a Local Driver. Marvin studied a variety of religions. He incorporated principles from Christianity and Islam in his daily living. He enjoyed tinkering on cars, yard work, watching all forms of sports and keeping abreast of political issues. Becoming a father was the greatest joy of his life. His prize possession were his children. He was father extraordinaire, placing his children before anything and anyone else. We will miss hearing one of his many quotes "You Know What I Mean." Marvin was selfless, very kind, he knew his purpose, always paying it forward by helping family, friends, and strangers in need.

Marvin lived by I Cor: 13:13. Faith, hope, and love the greatest of these is LOVE, which he embodied daily.

“ To my uncle and brother Marvin Fields my heart is hurting I know its Gods will when he take the ones we love. I guess you and (Big) was racing to see who went first, God saw to it that you are together raising hell. As I write this memory when you and I was playing tricks on people. I remember the time we went under the house we knew that was where they kept the corn liquor. Mama said what's wrong with you kids she said you drunk we burst out laughing, Mama beat the crap out of us. You are a good man with a big heart you will always be my brother.

PEACE BE UNTO YOU

“ I just can't express the overwhelming love I have for my uncle. We truly lost a soldier, great father, who loved his family. My fondest memory is growing up with my uncle and the love and support he gave in helping me raise my children. Thanks Uncle Horse for a job well done good and faithful servant. I love you💕💕
