“ I've been texting you my friend because we would usually check in, but with no response. Then I figure let me google your name maybe you have social media- but instead I get this obituary and I feel like I lost my breath! I know the last time you text me you said you were sick. I'm so heart broken! One of my fav memories of you is when we both won the lottery and didn't know it. 🤔 I had a dream about my aunt that passed away and my mom told me the number to play so you played it for both of us. The next day the lottery number came out, I said Marvin we won and you went right next door to Caton house to get our winnings. I will miss you my friend! Rest in heaven! Sending my love and condolences to Marvin's family.

Love Renata

“ I was able to meet Marvin this year at MAA. When he started working with me, we connected like we had known each other for years. The last time I was able to see Marvin was when I dropped off his back pack at the hospital. He will truly be missed.

“ My condolences to the family. Marvin will be greatly missed by me because not only was he a wonderful person but even more, a wonderful friend. Years ago Marvin drove me all the way to Macon Georgia over 900 Miles to see my father before he passed. He made it such a wonderful time and a wonderful memory I'll never forget. My dad and myself loved him for that. I am so hurt that I was not able to be there but to his mom whom I referred to as Aunt Katie because we had the same last name and his dad if you should ever need anything that I can help with please don't hesitate to ask. Peace, blessings, love and Godspeed.

“ My condolences to Marvin Goodwin and his family as well as friends. I met Marvin and Maurice about 7 years ago. They were such fun to hang out with and around. Always kept me laughing. I was shocked when I heard the news of Marvin's passing. My prayers go out to the Family & Maurice as well as anyone else whose life that this lovely young man has touched. You will be missed but never forgotten. May you R.I.H

“ My condolences to the family of Marvin Goodwin. Marvin and I worked for the same company as Contractor's servicing SSA. We became very close during that time, and he thought of me as his big sister.

I was devastated to hear of his passing because he texted me about a month ago as we always would touch base before too much time lapsed.

Marvin was such a great guy, kindhearted and loving and always caring about others.

I don't drive so he would always tell me that when he obtained his car, he would be coming to visit me. I was so looking forward to that happening.

He loved the Lord with all his heart, and I know he is now resting in his heavenly home. He will be truly missed. Rest well, my buddy!

“ I was fortunate enough to be blessed with the presence of Marvin in my life. I will forever cherish the unconditional respect and love that we had for each other. There are so many memories that we have that I will hold on to for the rest of my life. Marvin even though I will miss you immensely I take solace in knowing that you no longer have to deal with "CRAZY" and "SUFFERING" in this realm...Rest my "FOREVER FRIEND"

“ Marvin,

I feel you left extremely to early but I know God has better plan and needed you. You will always be family, my brother and dearest friend! Since the day I met you and Maurice. I always told myself that you had a laughter and spirit that could bring anyone out of a bad day or depression! You were like night and day. The sweetest and meanest if you had to be lol... But all in all you had the heart worth of Gold! You will be truly missed... I hate I didn't say Goodbye or see you. But this isn't goodbye.. this is until we meet again !!

Fly high and know you will always remain in my heart

“ My partner lover for 11 years I was there with you till the end when you took your last breath also with your family. I would never forget the first day we met was like a love story I came up to you and you told me that you work with numbers you didn't have a phone at the time but you remember my number every time we came across one another paths many times and gotten closer to knowing each other you told me my kisses were intoxicating lol. We had so much memories friends and family that you introduced me to I would take with me forever. Also the loving way you looked at me from time to time was touching.

We also made are own life time friends that we got to know together the events and parties we shared to going and celebrating holidays together you getting to know my family the cooking you love and you funny sense of humor.

We traveled together many places New York to Washington DC to Ocean City ! I love you forever and always I watch you fight for you life this past month and I was by your side day and night night and day every procedure to every thing you endure.

But now you don't have to hurt no more or feel no pain this is not the end or saying the words good bye but until we meet again my love I will carry on the moments and memories with me love you and you will always have a special place forever in my heart.

Thank you also to the family your mother, father ,brothers , cousins nieces and nephews and friends of the family for the love and happiness we shared with Marvin God bless.

“ Sept 17, 1992,

The day I met a friend for life. The Goodwin family became my family away from home. All the gatherings and events, I felt like I naturally fit in. Being somewhat new to Baltimore and learning its culture, I learned the Bmore way quickly!

Howard and Katie became roll models to me, hard working, God fearing and had love of family above all and foremost.

The dinners I had with the family will always be remembered! . Ms Katie's Mac and Cheese and the hidden advice given now that I reflect upon was special and has carried me through the years.

One thing , we all who loved Marvin was his infectious laugh. The notable pitch and then a high note, followed by three distinctive sounds.

All the memories made and friends I've met through Marvin will never be forgotten.

Marvin was indeed a son to my parents and became a part of my family.

My friend, thank you for the special times and keeping me abreast of your family. Especially your parents, brothers, nieces and nephews

Never a goodbye, but see you later. Thank you , and most of all, for the fond memories.

Respectfully,

Scott
