“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 says- "The last enemy to be destroyed will be death." We learn from this that death is an enemy and also God will "destroy", do away with death. What about our dead loved ones? Daniel 12:2 promises- "Many, many people of the earth that are dead and buried will wake up. Some of them will wake up to have life forever." May these divinely inspired promises give you much comfort and strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Carroll, please accept my deepest sympathy for your great loss. I didn't know your loved one, however, I know what it's like to lose someone you love and I just wanted to share a comforting scripture from the bible with you. Perhaps you will get to compare it with your copy sometime. At Isaiah 26:19, Our loving Heavenly Father, Jehovah promises, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!..." What a joyful time it will be when this promise is fulfilled. Well, we have God's word and can look forward to seeing our loved ones again soon. We won't have to die in order to see them again, rather they will rise and live again. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
